at 1400 on Thursday 25 Nov 2021

UK Outlook for Tuesday 30 Nov 2021 to Thursday 9 Dec 2021:
Remaining cloudy and mild on Tuesday with further outbreaks of rain, though the east could see brighter and colder conditions initially. Winds remaining fresh. Largely unsettled through the rest of this period with rain and strong winds often moving in from the west or northwest, although a lower risk of wintry conditions than at the start of the period. Some brighter and drier spells are likely especially in the south and southeast. Often windy with the risk of gales at times, especially in the north and northwest. Temperatures will be milder than of late in the south but remaining mostly rather cold in the north with a risk of hill snow as well as frost and ice.
